21 February 1962

1. I interviewed [REDACTED] who was interested in a job with CIA. I passed him on to Emmett Echols and told Emmett that I didn't see any place where we could possibly use him but that since he had had some correspondence with Mr. McCone we should make sure that he was treated courteously.

2. [REDACTED] reported that he thought his meeting with the Reorganization Committee went well; the Committee seemed to have some questions about the splintering off of the activities of the Automatic Data Processing Staff within the Agency, and Pat Coyne seemed to feel that the entire ADP effort in the Intelligence Community should be standardized. Joe said that insofar as organizational location was concerned, he recommended (a) reporting to the DDCI; (b) remaining in the DD/S Area; and (c) reporting to the DD/R in that order. H

3. Larry Houston told me that he had overheard a conversation which the Director had with [REDACTED] about surplus personnel in the Office of Training. I later talked to [REDACTED] about this who said that Jack had been in touch with him and that he had answered all the questions so that the Director would go ahead and sign off on the paper.

4. [REDACTED] were in to talk to me about the dissolution of the [REDACTED] and I agreed to find out whether Mr. Dulles had had any conversations with Messrs. [REDACTED] since I talked with him last.

5. Bob also wanted me to give some consideration to letting [REDACTED] come home at the end of his tour without writing the letter which [REDACTED] had drafted. I told him that some such letter was in order and that he should realize that (a) Frank was coming home without prejudice and that (b) [REDACTED] was getting another letter which put him on notice that his management at the Station had not been entirely satisfactory. 25X1A

6. I reviewed with Messrs. [REDACTED] the most recent draft of the letter to Clarence Cannon on [REDACTED] communications and agreed that Chuck and [REDACTED] should now go and discuss this matter [REDACTED]. I authorized Chuck to leave a copy of the letter [REDACTED] and if this is satisfactory, I do not see that it is necessary to have it signed by the Director. 25X1A9a

8. Shef Edwards reported that he thought his meeting with the Reorganization Committee went well. He believes that the Committee will recommend that all security clearances of all types be centralized in his Office. While this undoubtedly will be opposed by Ting Sheldon, and possibly NPIC and DPD, I think that it would be a good move.

9. [REDACTED] telephoned to say that the Office of Logistics was ready to issue instructions on the interim parking plan which is effective 5 March. I authorized him to go ahead and do this via memorandum from the Director of Logistics to appropriate components.

10. Emmett Echols called and wanted permission to talk to [REDACTED] about his becoming Chief of Recruitment. I approved.
